

Smith College Adaptive Reuse Program Helen Hills Hills Chapel Event Space (with Arcadis)

The Helen Hills Hills Chapel welcomed an upgrade to their existing presentation system. The juxtaposition between the architectural simplicity of the Chapel was capitalized by the fully concealed state of the art technology. Figure 1. Fully concealed conduit run back to the projector. Figure 2. Image of new valance which houses the projector screen. Figure 3. Image of the Helen Hills Hills Chapel Projector Screen installation. Figure 4. Fully concealed projector screen. Challenges: Calculating the aspect ratio so that the projection image misses the chandelier, high enough to the rear seats can see the image .
